

POLICE RAID DENS, FOLLOWING BOMB 23

Day of Excitement in Chicago's Gambling War.
Thirty-three Arrested.

BOMB THROWERS REMAIN HIDDEN

Explosions Always Occur in Front of Notorious Gaming Joints.
Reason Unknown.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—The arrest of thirty-three men in a gambling raid today, followed the explosion of bomb twenty-three, in the gambling war, that has been waging in Chicago since George W. Shipley became head of the police department.

The helplessness of the police against the mysterious person or persons who have been throwing bombs at gambling houses for the purpose of calling attention to the freedom allowed gamblers, has been the cause of numerous church sermons, resolutions from reform organizations, and ridicule of the police department.

Raid a Bluff.

The "raid" this afternoon was on a cigar store, where the men arrested were shaking dice, playing cards, but not betting on the races. Edward Klein is the owner of the store, which is located at 211 Van Buren street. Within a couple of blocks of the store is the headquarters of the gambling clique in Chicago, near Van Buren and State streets, but no effort was made to molest that place. The raid is looked upon, as a bluff by Shipley and his aids, to show that the gamblers are not enjoying themselves as easily as is generally believed.

Directed at Gamblers.

Bomb No. 23 was fired early this morning in a saloon where gambling has never existed. It is not believed that the gamblers' enemies threw the latest one. The others have been directed chiefly at O'Leary's, where the biggest handbook of the country was run when gambling and race tracks flourished in Chicago; Rogers & O'Malley's, where faro, roulette, and stud poker have been running unmolested for years, and Zeane, who succeeded to the title, "king of gamblers," when O'Leary fell out with the authorities.

Gamblers Closed Up.

It is common gossip that at the places conducted by these men handbooks as well as faro, craps, and roulette are flourishing, but never an arrest has been made in months. When the first bomb was fired it was credited to an element of the gambling fraternity that had been frozen out under Shipley. That was over a year ago. The gamblers closed up until the excitement blew over. Bomb No. 2 came as quickly as they reopened. It is generally believed the police know the offenders, but fear to arrest them because of the scandal that might follow.

THIEVES GET $600.

CEDARHURST, L. I., Oct. 24.—While Mrs. Grandin Norcross and her sister were sitting in the parlor of their home on Columbia avenue on Thursday evening somebody entered the upper story and ransacked it, carrying off jewelry valued at $600.

PATRICIDE GETS BAIL.

GREENPORT, L. I., Oct. 24.—Frank Peterson, the eighteen-year-old school boy, who shot and almost instantly killed his father, Frank Peterson, a local truckman, while the latter was abusing the boy's mother, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000.

JEWELER SUSPECTS FLEET'S DEPARTURE "SHOPPING MANIAC" SPED BY JAPANESE

New Yorker Believes "Dr." Claire Silliman Ordered Goods From His Store.

"Dr." Claire L. Silliman, referred to by the police as "the woman with the shopping mania," who was arrested on a charge of petit larceny, and who admitted having costlessly jewelry sent to fictitious persons at the New Willard Hotel because she enjoyed going into jewelry stores, operated in a somewhat similar manner in New York, according to information received by the police last night.

Miss Silliman was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday on a charge of stealing a souvenir spoon, but her case was continued.

Last night the police received the following letter from P. Shapiro, a jeweler, of 885 Ninth avenue, New York:

"Today I noticed stories of the arrest of a certain 'Dr.' Claire L. Silliman in the city of Washington, and from the description in the papers I am quite sure I recognize her as a woman who came into our place last Friday and asked to be shown some Elk emblems.

"She introduced herself as a physician and as a one-time superintendent of the Skin and Cancer Hospital, at Second avenue and Nineteenth street. She had no emblems on hand, and she was shown diamond scarfpins, cuff buttons, and fobs. She selected cuff buttons and had them placed in a box, to be ready for delivery in twenty minutes, while she went to cash a check.

"We missed a scarfpin with a 1/2-karat diamond and a small ruby, set one behind the other. I would be able to recognize her easily as a stout, well-built woman, weighing about 170 pounds."

FOUND DEAD IN OFFICE

READING, Pa., Oct. 24.—J. Bert Lenzel, manager of the McAdoo Oil Company in this city, was found dead in his office today with a bullet in his heart and a pistol by his side. The case is believed to be one of suicide.

STENOGRAPHER FOR SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Members Want Accurate Report of Facts—Begin Visits of Schools Tomorrow.

To guard against any possible conflict and to insure a uniform report of facts, the committee appointed to investigate the condition of the public schools of Washington, is going to take along a stenographer, and each statement made will be taken down and turned over to the secretary of the committee.

Tomorrow morning the committee will hold a short business session and agree on the plans for the coming week. It has been decided to start the real inspection of the buildings tomorrow, and what buildings will be visited will be agreed on today by the committee, consisting of Appleton E. Clark, Jr., chairman; James L. Parsons, Samuel J. Prescott, and Paul J. Pelz, and Leon E. Dessez.

The committee has decided that it must make a public statement each day of its findings, opinions, and impressions. Members of the committee are anxious that the public should know the exact conditions of the school buildings. Members declare that all the buildings cannot be unsafe, but that danger exists in some, they declare, is already known.

A fear is expressed that unless the details are made known by experts, a general panicky feeling will be instilled into the minds of the children and all the fire drilling would not count for much in case of even a slight alarm.

STRIKE BREAKER BEATEN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Beaten and stabbed, supposedly by striking chauffeurs, William Kaufman, a strikebreaker for the New York Taxicab Company, today is in Bellevue Hospital and the police are looking for his assailants. Kaufman's taxicab, which was used by the gang in making their escape, was found burned at Pier 35, North river, today.

ICE KING'S PARTNER MAY ASSIST STATE

Curtis, Associated With C. W. Morse in Banks, Assailed by Evidence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Sensational as have been the disclosures of Charles W. Morse's operations in "frenzied finance" during his trial for violation of the Federal banking laws, the interest was captured today by hints that his co-defendant, Alfred H. Curtis, might soon be converted to the side of the prosecution.

Day by day Curtis has sat in Judge Hough's court and heard the financial schemes of Morse disclosed in a way that he might not have thoroughly understood in the days when he was tool for the "Ice King." Day by day he has seen the testimony outline the methods used by Morse to further his plans in the ice trust, the Steamship trust, and the chain of banks scheme, and his conferences with Morse have grown fewer and his attitude to his former associate more frigid.

Earlier in the case, when it was said Curtis might turn State's evidence, W. M. O'Leary, his lawyer, exclaimed: "Mr. Curtis may be converted, as the Government expects, or acquitted, as we expect, but he is not the other kind of a man."

In United States District Attorney Stimson's office it was declared today the Government would not need Curtis' testimony.

$75,000 FIRE RAGING.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—The second serious conflagration to visit the city within the space of twenty-four hours came early this morning in the lumber and coal yard of the Jesse Lukens Company, Glenwood avenue and Sixth street, and is still burning, having entailed a loss of $75,000. All of the firemen located in the northeast section of the city have been summoned to the scene of the fire.
